

Brandon Smith (Musical Theatre, MT1) - Brandon Smith has worked as an instructor and performer in various areas of the arts. A 2007 graduate of Miami University, he was a member of Vision Dance Company, leading the company as a choreographer and Artistic Director for the 2005-2006 season. While at Miami, he pursued a degree in History and Sociology, simultaneously maintaining his love for singing by participating various choral ensembles. After graduation, Brandon returned to his hometown of Lexington, KY to instruct several local high school color guards.

Currently, Brandon is the color guard director for the Madison Central High School Band (Richmond, KY). His love for the marching arts extends all the way back to high school marching band, his four years performing with the Madison Scouts Drum and Bugle Corps (Madison, WI), and spending the 2008 winter season with World Championship Finalist Winter Guard, the Pride of Cincinnati, receiving a silver medal at the championships. Upon his return to Lexington, Brandon renewed his love for musical theatre, performing in the 2008 KCTC SummerFest production of Hair.
